

25e journée du Centre d'Etudes de l'Inde et de l'Asie du Sud

India's Hindutva Turn

December 6th 2022

Campus Condorcet, Aubervilliers

ceias
Inde / l'Asie du Sud
centre for South Asian studies

m ama
samaj
उत्तु
III

anr
agence nationale
de la recherche

L'ÉCOLE
DES HAUTES
ÉTUDES EN
SCIENCES
SOCIALES

 GIS ASIE
French Academic Network
on Asian Studies

cnrs

Registration to the conference on the following link is mandatory: <https://urlz.fr/jQBu>

8.45am. Welcome remarks by CEIAS Directors

1st session: 9am -10.30am.

Chair: Loraine Kennedy (CNRS-CEIAS)

Introduction (Aminah Mohammad-Arif, CNRS-CEIAS, Jules Naudet, CNRS-CEIAS)

Hindutva and the Rewriting of History (Audrey Truschke, Rutgers University)

Coffee Break

2nd session: 10.45am – 12.15pm

Chair: Julien Levesque (Zurich University)

Hindutva and its Gurus (Jacob Copeman, Universidade de Santiago de Compostela)

The State of the Hindu Rashtra (Nayanika Mathur, Oxford University/Princeton University)

Lunch Break (buffet open to all registered participants)

3rd session: 2pm – 3.30pm

Chair: Corinne Lefèvre (CNRS-CEIAS)

Hindu Rashtra and Bollywood: A New Front in the Battle for Cultural Hegemony (name to be announced)

Indian Muslims, from Marginalization towards Exclusion (name to be announced)

Coffee Break

Round table: 3.45pm – 5.45pm

India at a Historical Crossroads: What are the Possible Bifurcations?

Chair and moderator: Christophe Jaffrelot (CNRS-CERI)

This round table will discuss both the potential and pitfalls of attempts to compare India's current trajectory with various other historical and political cases (Palestine, Turkey, Nazi Germany).

Participants : Laetitia Bucaille (CESSMA, INALCO), Gilles Dorronsoro (CESSP, Panthéon-Sorbonne University), Nicolas Patin (CEMMC, Université Bordeaux-Montaigne)

Cocktail